

Institute of International Studies, Ramkhamhaeng University (IIS-RU), is calling for current full-time students both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels to join “Sawasdee Buddy Program 2015” during 17 – 19 January 2016 at Mueang District and Si Satchanalai District, Sukhothai Province

The Program will use the ‘first-come-first-served’ basis for selection process. Students who sign up after it has reached the maximum number of participants will not be considered to participate in this project automatically.

- The available numbers for IIS female full-time students to be accepted is 7 students only.
- The available numbers for IIS male full-time students to be accepted is 8 students only.

Required documents for application:

1. Copy of citizen ID card (Thai students only)
2. Copy of student card for both Thai and international students
3. Copy of passport (International students only)
4. One photo
5. A completed application form of the program (Be given at the IIS office)

Remark:

- Student who does not submit all required documents at the time of application will not be allowed to apply for this project for any reason.
- The program will not be able to provide any specific kind of food upon participants requested, all participants have to be able to eat all kinds of food provided by the program and project leaders only.

For more information about Sawasdee Buddy Program 2015, please contact Mr. Wood at wood@iis.ru.ac.th